WHAT'S WRONG WITH OUR CONSTITUTION?

Our current Constitution covers NONE of our modern problems. Otherwise, it's great.

CANDIDATES ARE DEADLOCKED

Even your wish list candidates support special interests over yours, and are so polarized they're stalemated, even within parties.

ALL ELSE HAS FAILED

If candidates, nonprofits, and marches were going to solve our problems, they would have by now. It's time to try something new.

AMENDING IS CONSTITUTIONAL

Keeps 90% of our Constitution intact and uses the amendment clause to allow VOTERS to dictate solutions to politicians.

UNITES AMERICA

Unites the left, right and center behind mutually acceptable common sense solutions.

POLLING IS POWER

If celebrities tell their followers; nonprofits, their members; and voters, their friends and families, the poll numbers will force ratification.

WHY DO WE NEED A NEW CONSTITUTION?
Our Constitution permits Wall Street monopolies to control our politicians, government and treasury for the price of a campaign contribution.

NO MORE TIME

Passing piece by piece all the legislation we need would take far too long, even if they could. It took Valentine 55,000 hours over 45 years.

ALREADY WRITTEN LEGISLATION

To get what you want it must first be written, then voted on, then have enough votes to pass.

ENDS THE DIVIDE

Puts ALL Americans at the negotiating table and gives you what you want most while you compromise on issues less important to you.

COMBINED POWER

Allows underpowered nonprofits, celebrities and voters to combine their power and fulfill all their missions together.

Valentine

VALENTINE was raised on a Virginia farm near the Shenandoah River and the Blue Ridge Mountains in a county adjacent to where Jefferson, Madison and Mason grew up on farms. After skipping 11th grade, he graduated from high school with a 4.0 GPA, then attended The University of Virginia where he began work recodifying the laws of the United States. After graduating in 3 years, he simultaneously ran precinct operations for both the John Warner for US Senate and the Frank Wolf for US Congress campaigns.

In the early 1980s he traveled the world researching governments using his NY Elite modeling credentials to pay for the trip. He furthered his graduate studies at UCLA, UNLV and UM. Valentine has devoted most of his tireless life to finding effective solutions to America's social, political and governmental problems, culminating in The Valentine Constitution. He is the author of the The Valentine Constitution book, an exposition of his constitution and vision for America. A nonpartisan candidate for President in 2020, Valentine hopes to implement his newly ratified constitution, a task that falls primarily to the executive branch. Valentine is an American philanthropist, philosopher, poet, author, lyricist, singer, songwriter, music producer, actor, screenwriter, movie producer and director.

VALENTINE wrote and recorded a 50 song Showtunes library in Las Vegas along with two musical screenplays that include the songs. He also created three SongBooks, narrations of the synopses interspersed with recorded samples of the songs. He wrote, produced and recorded a 50 song Country Pop library on Music Row in Nashville. A dozen of the songs are political with punchy political music videos to elucidate his points. He authored the books Lyrics by Valentine and Poems by Valentine, and has written over 30 screenplays, some of which he's adapted as ScreenBooks for casual reading: Collapse, Angel's Playground.

VALENTINE wrote, produced, directed and stars in the feature length motion pictures "Romantic Schemer" and "4/11" both shot on film in Miami.
